Schiff to Host, Moderate Station Fire Update

Pasadena, CA - Since the Station Fire hit Southern California in August 2009, devastating 250 square miles, killing two firefighters and leaving many people homeless, Rep. Adam Schiff (D-CA) has worked with local fire agencies, the US Forest Service and many others to learn from what went wrong in the effort to extinguish the fire and implement changes to make sure those mistakes are not repeated. There has been some progress, although much more needs to be done, and Rep. Schiff is hosting a meeting with representatives of the Forest Service and the Government Accountability Office at the Altadena Library to inform residents about these efforts.

Moderator:    Congressman Schiff

Speakers:    Tom Harbour, Director of Fire and Aviation, U.S. Forest Service

Stephen Gaty, Assistant Director, Government Accountability Office, Natural Resources and Environment Team

When:            Thursday, April 28
                          10:30 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Where:            Altadena Library
                          600 East Mariposa St.
